

TURKISH DEFEAT
MAY CLOSE WARBulgarians Inflict Hard Blow on Ottoman Troops.

PORTE DISCUSSING PEACE

Council Sitting at Constantinople.
With Turkish Army of Two Hundred Thousand Men Beaten and Demoralized in Full Retreat, Is Considering Taking Steps to Bring Conflict to a Close.

London, Nov. 1.—Nazim Pasha, the Turkish minister of war and commander-in-chief in Thrace, has been either shot or taken prisoner, according to a dispatch from Sofia to the Post.

London, Nov. 1.—A four-day battle in Thrace has ended in the triumph of the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, General Savoff, whose skillful strategy probably has brought to a close one of the shortest and most remarkable wars on record.

A great Turkish army, estimated at more than 200,000 men, has been defeated and is in retreat. Constantinople is believed to be at the mercy of the victorious Bulgarian army and a council, sitting at the porte, is discussing the advisability of suing for peace.

Such is the news which comes from Constantinople.

It is only a fortnight since Turkey declared war. The first week of the campaign closed with the dramatic fall of Kirk-Kilisseh, fully revealing for the first time the disorganization, im-morale and inefficient commissariat of the Turkish army. Today that army is defeated, routed within fifty miles of Constantinople, and possibly its retreat within the capital's line of defense is cut off.

It is believed a peace settlement will be arranged either by the porte suing for peace or through intervention of the powers. And an interesting question involving difficult diplomatic problems will immediately arise as to the divisions of the spoils of war—a question concerning not only the victorious allies but also Russia, Austria, Rumania and possibly other powers.

Vague Accounts of Battle.

Only the briefest and vaguest accounts of the great battle have yet been received, for the war has been especially remarkable in that not a single war correspondent has been allowed at the front except in the case of the little Montenegrin campaign against Scutari.

Apparently Nazim Pasha has been completely outmaneuvered by Savoff's skillful generalship. The Bulgarian turning movement along the Black sea coast now appears to have been a feint, which induced the Turkish commander to throw his main army to the eastward to such effect that the Bulgarian force on this side had the greatest difficulty in holding the Turks in check.

In fact, this point seems a little in doubt. The Bulgarians gave way and thus enabled Nazim Pasha to report to Constantinople some success in this direction.

In the meantime, however, General Savoff hurled his great strength against the Turks' weakened left wing, which he crushed in at Lule Burgas.
The fighting along the whole front, which evidently has been of the most stubborn and determined character, was carried on day and night without intermission and both sides lost heavily.

Turks Retreat to Tchioru.

The capture of Nazim Pasha's headquarters at Tchioru, to which town the defeated Turks retreated, has not as yet been reported, but is hourly expected at Sofia.

In this event the Turks will be forced within the defensive lines of Tchatalja, the only remaining fortified position protecting Constantinople. It lies twenty-five miles to the northwest of the capital. Adrianople still holds out, but has lost its importance now that the Turks have met their Sedan at Lule Burgas.

The campaign of the other Balkan states continues with the success which throughout has attended them.
Serbia has not yet been captured, but Ipek has fallen to the Montenegrins.
The Servians have taken Pizreno and Greece is occupying islands in the Aegean, in addition to various towns in Macedonia.

The powers, fearing disorders and massacres in Turkey, are hurrying warships to the various ports of that country to protect foreign residents.

A noticeable feature of the war is the insignificant part played by the Turkish and Greek fleets.

Turks Massacre Christians.

Sofia, Nov. 1.—The Bulgarian army is vigorously pursuing the Turks, who are retreating in disorder and panic on Serai and Tchioru. The Bulgarians have captured a large quantity of ammunition. At Aivali, near Lule Burgas, and Maras have been burned.
All the Christian inhabitants, according to the Bulgarians, were massacred.

CROWD CHEERS
WILSON AN HOURGovernor Gets Great Ovation at Madison Square Garden.

POLICE EJECT INTERRUPTER

Democratic Presidential Nominee Appeals to Officers to Let Disturber Remain, but He Is Hauled From the Hall—Representatives Underwood and Sulzer Also Make Addresses.

New York, Nov. 1.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, speaking before an audience that filled every corner of Madison Square Garden, received the greatest ovation of his campaign for the presidency. Entering the hall after speaking before an enthusiastic audience in the Bronx the Democratic candidate stood for an hour and three minutes at the railing of the speaker's platform, waiting for the demonstration to end.

"No man could fail to be moved by a demonstration such as we have witnessed," he said with every evidence of deep feeling, as he finally made himself heard, "yet I am the more thrilled because I realize it is a demonstration for a cause and not for a man."

Starting with the first shouts from the doorway when Governor Wilson arrived by automobile from the Bronx meeting the Madison Square Garden outburst defied his utmost efforts to quell it. The governor's motion for quiet brought only renewed cheers.
Chants of "We want Wilson" shook the hall and twice, when the cheering had slightly subsided, it was started with renewed vigor by young women who forced their way to the front of the speakers' stand and inspired the crowd to fresh efforts.

Governor Wilson spoke extemporaneously, but adhered closely to the speech he had made earlier at the Bronx meeting. He had spoken only a few minutes and was declaring that the Progressive party, "wherever it could capture the regular Republican organization, was regular, and where-ever it could not was irregular," when a man in the middle aisle of the hall directly beneath the speakers' stand, shouted:

Governor, talk about the Baltimore platform.

Cries of "Put him out!" came from all parts of the hall and three policemen grabbed the disturber and rushed him to a doorway.

Police Eject Interrupter.

Governor Wilson leaned over the rail and called to the police. "Don't put anybody out," but the man was ejected.

"It is inconvenient to have more than one man speak at a time, but this is a free country," added Governor Wilson amidst cheers from the crowd.

Mrs. Wilson and her three daughters, in a box near the speakers' platform, apparently were greatly moved by the demonstration for the governor and exchanged smiles with him as he tried to obtain order.

Representative Oscar W. Underwood, who had been one of Governor Wilson's opponents for the Democratic nomination, and Representative William Sulzer, candidate for governor of New York, preceded Governor Wilson at Madison Square Garden. Mr. Underwood had spoken only a few minutes when Governor Wilson arrived and he gave way before the demonstration for the governor.

"Government is an enterprise of mankind—not of parties," said Governor Wilson. "I know from the reports coming from all parts of the country that the new party has not come from the Democrats. Therefore it must be made up of those Republicans who are dissatisfied with the regular organization and its avowed purpose and programs."

"All men have to do is to realize that the common enterprises of life are the enterprises of politics; that a man is not voting an abstract political creed, but is voting a program of justice and of right when he votes at the polls. Now, if you want that program, what are you going to do next Tuesday?"

"Vote for Wilson," interrupted a voice, and there was great applause.

FARMER SLAIN NEAR DULUTH

Sheriff Meining Arrests a Farmhand on Suspicion.

Duluth, Nov. 1.—Matt Kemp, forty-eight years old, a farmer, was found dead on the Thompson road near Midway, with a deep knife wound in his left arm. One of the arteries was cut and he bled to death.

Hugo Pyggo, farmhand working near Kemp's farm, has been arrested by Sheriff Meining on suspicion. At the autopsy it was found that the point of the knife was broken off in Kemp's arm. A knife about seven inches long, with the point missing, was found in Pyggo's possession when arrested.

PROGRESSIVE FUND GROWS

Nearly One Hundred Thousand Dollars Donated in Week.

New York, Nov. 1.—Contributions amounting to $93,974.95 were received by Progressive national headquarters during the week of Oct. 18 to 24, the supplemental report sent to Washington by National Treasurer E. H. Hooker shows. More than 2,000 subscribers made up this sum.

The largest contributors were George W. Perkins and Alexander Smith Cochran of New York, each of whom gave $25,000.

A. Heckscher of New York gave $15,- 000; Robert Bacon, $10,000, and O.
Barker of Ohio, $4,500. The $1,000 contributors were William Fellers, Morgan, I. O. Blake and U. J. Upson of New York.

TO COMMIT HIMSELFMissouri Governor Mentioned for Taft's Running Mate.

Kansas City, Nov. 1.—"The mere mention of a man's name by his friends as a possible candidate for such an office as the vice presidency is highly gratifying, but does not necessarily mean that he is a candidate," said Governor Hadley in answer to the question whether he would accept the nomination as President Taft's running mate if it was tendered him by the Republican national committee.

"I had rather not answer the question at this time," he said. "The meeting of the committee to fill the vacancy is called for Nov. 12, several days after the election. It may not be necessary for me to make an announcement at all whether or not I would accept."

The governor was the guest of Republicans at luncheon here.

DUE TO SUPERIOR STRATEGY

Victorious Bulgarians Outgeneral Turkish Forces.

Sofia, Nov. 1.—News of the defeat of the Turkish army was received here with a feeling of great relief, but no noisy demonstration. The people now are looking forward to Bulgaria becoming a great power in the Balkans, as Turkey formerly was.

The Turks suffered severely. Many were captured and great numbers of dead were left on the field.

News of the capture of Nazim Pasha's headquarters at Tchioru is eagerly awaited.

The Bulgarian victory was due to superior strategy, combined with the extreme energy of their offensive movement. It appears that the object of the rapid advance early in the week on Visa and Midia was not really to outflank the Turkish right but to mislead the Turks. This was entirely successful. The Turks moved their reserves by sea and along the coast to strengthen the right wing, which reached to Istrandia, and directed all their efforts to meeting here what they believed to be the main attack.

PICKED DYNAMITE WITH PIN

Mother and Five Children Seriously Injured.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee, wife of a well known Lakewood Heights resident, probably was fatally injured and her five small children painfully burned when a dynamite cap exploded in the mother's hands.

The children brought the cap to her and stood close while she, thinking it was a discharged revolver cartridge, picked it at it with a hatpin. The explosion resulted.

Three Children Perish.

Winnipeg, Nov. 1.—The three children of Frank Gerish, Hallblithe, Sask., aged three, five and seven, were burned to death when fire of an unknown origin destroyed their home.

FORECASTS ON THE ELECTIONManagers of All Parties Positively Claim Success.

ARTHUR W. DUNN'S VIEWS.

Veteran Washington Correspondent Discusses the Conditions and Gives It as His Belief That the Democratic Candidate Will Have a Big Majority in the Electoral College.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 1.—[Special.]—Political forecasting ripens about this time in every presidential year. There has been a lot of predicting ever since the nominations were made, and, of course, the managers of all political parties have been giving out positive claims of success. Now, it is apparent that only one of the three leading candidates can be elected. The prognos-tics of the managers of the other two are wrong.

Naturally many Republicans hope that Chairman Hillis is right when he says President Taft will surely have 280 electoral votes, fifteen more than enough to elect, with some states in the doubtful column. With some amazement we look at the claims of Chairman McCombs, who puts his hand over the map of the United States and says all or practically all will vote for Wilson. With considerable interest we study the claims of Chairman Dixon and ponder his enthusiastic claim that there is a groundswell or landslide coming for Roosevelt.

Mr. Hillis tabulates his figures by states. Mr. McCombs gives a few states with a few electoral votes as possibly Republican. Mr. Dixon does not specify beyond a dozen states, but says the uprising is bound to sweep the Progressives into power.

Newspaper Predictions.

Most of the newspapers supporting the different candidates are following the predictions of the campaign managers and backing up their claims.
They want their candidates to win, and to "lay down" before the election is not considered good political fighting.
Newspaper correspondents, as far as possible, are following the policy of the papers they represent and with "ifs" and "on the other hands" they give the impression that there is a fighting chance or a hopeful outlook for their candidates.

A Personal Prediction.

My own personal opinion of the result of the coming election is that Governor Wilson will be elected by such a majority in the electoral college as will make the comparison go back to 1852, when the Whig candidate carried only three states. It does not take very much political sagacity to predict Wilson's success. With two candidates who have both been elected as Republicans dividing the Republican vote, it seems to me almost hopeless to think of Republican success or the success of the Progressive candidate.

The elections in 1872 and in 1892 were very one sided. In my opinion the coming election will be more one sided than either of those which were termed landslides.

Reasons Why.

The Republicans have had sixteen years of uninterrupted control, and many people want a change. Two years ago the Democrats carried the country in the congressional elections.
For many years a big victory two years before a presidential election has been followed by the success of the same party in the greater contest. I might add that the "straw votes" and betting odds are largely favorable to Wilson, and while neither are sure indications of forthcoming results, they are confirmatory of the general conditions which so strongly indicate a Democratic victory.

Seems a Natural Outcome.

To me Democratic success seems a natural outcome of all the conditions.
Governor Wilson should receive most of the votes cast for Bryan four years ago. He will get many former Democratic votes which have been cast for Republicans during the Bryan years.
In many states it is known that standpat Republicans will vote for Wilson in order to defeat Roosevelt.

Possibly there will be 15,000,000 votes cast. Bryan had 6,000,000 votes four years ago. Defections from his vote to the other candidates will be made up by the gains for the reasons stated. Let us say that Wilson will have 6,500,000 votes and the 8,500,000 are divided between Taft and Roosevelt. It would be an impossibility to arrange them in states so as to prevent a big Wilson majority in the electoral college.

In this connection it is well to remember that the bulk of the votes cast four years ago and that will be cast this year are in the northern or debatable states. The vote was very light in the sure Democratic states of the south and will be light this year.

Senate and House.

The house of representatives is always carried by the same party which elects the president. This year will be no exception. The Democrats are likely to increase their majority in the house, and in my opinion they will carry enough state legislatures to give them control of the senate.

Almost.

asol of being so.—Exchange.

CHIEF WILKIE.

Thinks Good Times Cause Decrease in Counterfeiting.

BOGUS COINS ON DECLINE

Chief Wilkie Thinks Good Times Cause Decrease.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Counterfeiting materially decreased in this country during the fiscal year 1912. John E.
Wilkie, chief of the United States secret service, in his annual report described the improvement largely to an era of prosperity. The representative value of spurious notes and coins circulated during the year was $39,000, the lowest since 1907, he said.

"It has been noted," the report stated, "that any extended period of good times is marked by a decline in the activity of criminals who specialize in counterfeiting. When legitimate work is easily obtained there is less inducement to resort to illegitimate pursuits."

"There were 324 counterfeiters arrested during the year, while the record of 1911 was 410."

SAYS M'NAMARA IS PLOTING IN PRISONSensational Evidence at Trial of Alleged Dynamiters.

Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—That John J.
McNamara, the dynamiter, since his imprisonment in the state penitentiary at San Quentin, Cal., has plotted to "get" William J. Burns, a detective, and also to "get" Walter Drew, who worked up evidence against him, was the substance of testimony at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial.

The story told on the witness stand was that Herbert S. Hockin went to San Quentin last spring and that Mc-Namara said to him: "I'd like to see them get Burns and Drew."

A package was produced in court and identified as having been taken from the check room of the union station at Indianapolis May 8 last. When opened before the jury the package was found to contain forty feet of fuse, a parcel of dynamite caps and an alarm clock. The package was wrapped in a San Francisco newspaper of April 13, 1912.

Edward J. Brennan, an agent of the department of justice, testified that May 27 last he was called into the district attorney's office in Indianapolis and there Hockin had confessed to him.

REPORT ON THE EDDY ESTATE

Christian Scientist Left $237,843.73 in Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Mary Baker G.
Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, had in Massachusetts at the time of her death, $32,843.75 in personal property and real estate valued at $158,000, according to the report of Thomas W. Streeter, Frederick E. Jennings and John W. Worthington, who were appointed by the probate court to appraise the estate. They were instructed to make return to Josiah E. Fornald of Concord, N. H., administrator of the will of Mrs. Eddy, allowed by the courts of New Hampshire.

All the personal property goes to the Christian Science church under the decision of the supreme court of New Hampshire, which sustained the will of Mrs. Eddy. The entire amount which the New Hampshire administrator will turn over to the church is about $2,900,000.

HAWKINS PREFERS HADLEY

Minnesotan Wants Sherman's Suc-

Duluth, Nov. 1.—E. B. Hawkins, Republican national committeeman for Minnesota, said his choice for the vacancy caused by the death of Vice President Sherman is Governor Hadley of Missouri.

"I believe the choice should be made at once," said he. "However, it may be a physical impossibility to get the national committee together in the short time remaining before election.
I shall consider my expression binding if coincided with by a majority of the committee."

MONTANA JURIST IS DEAD

Judge Clancy Attained Fame During Copper War.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 1.—Judge William Clancy, aged seventy, famous as a judge during the memorable copper war between F. Augustus Heinze and the Amalgamated Copper company, died of injuries caused by a fall downstairs resulting in a blood clot upon the brain. For several months the former jurist had been blind in consequence of his injury.

Judge Clancy's decisions in favor of Heinze enabled the former copper king practically to tie up the entire Amalgamated Copper mining industry of Butte. When that company threw up its hands in despair, alleging its inability to secure fair play in the courts and closed down its properties, the legislature by the passage of the "fair trial" law, permitting five changes of judges, enabled the Amalgamated to resume.

DENY KILLING YOUNG GIRL

Couple Under Arrest Accused of Chicago Murder.

Lima, O., Nov. 1.—Charles N. Cramer, alias Conway, and the woman known as Beatrice Ryall, who were taken in custody here in connection with the murder in Chicago of Miss Sophia Singer, added to the mystery by declaring after their arrest that Miss Singer told them before they left Chicago that she was going to "break off" with William Worthen, the man who says he was the dead girl's sweetheart.

The couple also declare that the night they left their Indiana avenue apartment house in Chicago a stranger giving the name of Claude Stillman called on Miss Singer. This was the night Miss Singer was murdered.

TO PUSH GUNMEN'S TRIALS

Whitman Calls for Veniemen to Appear Nov. 8.

New York, Nov. 1.—The state's determination not to stay the trials of the four gangsters indicted with Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal was indicated when District Attorney Whitman moved before Supreme Court Justice Goff for a special panel of 200 veniremen to appear Nov. 8. The trial of the first of the gunmen is expected to begin Nov. 13 or 14.

Mr. Whitman and former Magistrate C. G. F. Wahle, counsel for the four accused men, have agreed that they shall be tried separately.

Whitney Lewis will be the first to face prosecution.

It is the party that accomplishes things for the people rather than the party that promises much and does little that should receive the support of the people at the polls. The republican party stands for real, definite, genuine national progress and prosperity, as against demagoguery and the desire for experiment. William H. Taft is the candidate of the republican party and his reelection to the presidency means a continuation of present conditions. Such men as President Taft do not promise so much as some others but they achieve a great deal more and the people are the beneficiaries.

It is the workingman who can least afford a change of administration of national affairs at a time like this. Think back to 1892 and ask yourself if the workingman or farmer prospered after the election of a democratic president. The conditions and prosperity of the people and not theories are what count, and the prosperity that is being enjoyed under a republican administration should not be jeopardized by the voters. The reelection of President Taft and a continuation of the policies that have given the country the prosperity it now enjoys certainly should appeal to the voters on Tuesday next.

Judge Oscar Hallam, of St. Paul, received one of the primary nominations for associate justice of the supreme court, and is endorsed for the position by over 80 per cent of the bar of his home county. In addition to this the people of his home county of Ramsey also endorsed him at the primary election giving him a majority of 1550 over his opponent in the same class who also resides in Ramsey county. Judge Hallam's career eminently fits him for the position, and his record on the bench has shown a broad and liberal spirit to regard human rights as more important than property and to administer practical justice rather than follow the technicalities of the law. His early life and his environments as a lawyer and judge have been such as to insure a proper sympathy with the masses. He was born and brought up on a farm, and his record plainly indicates that he can be trusted to properly safeguard the people in their just rights.

Every man in Crow Wing county who exercises his right to vote at the coming election should vote "yes" on the proposed one-mill tax amendment, which is the first one on the list of amendments to be voted for. The fund raised by this tax, if the amendment passes, can be expended only on country roads under the supervision of the State Highway commission, and none of it can be expended in the cities and villages. In other words the country highways will receive the entire benefit. Good roads are of as much benefit to the municipalities as any other one thing and probably more so, for they are the arteries that bring the trade of the country into the city to which they are adjacent and in these days of advancement, improvement and prosperity good roads are something that Minnesota, and especially the northern part, needs. If you do not vote for the amendment you practically vote against it as the entire vote cast at the election is taken into account when the decision is made on the passage of the act.

UGH! HOW CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL.

To Clean the Little One's Stomach, Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels Give Gentle "Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 30 feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of cold, has diarrhoea, sore throat, stomach-ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember—look at the tongue, if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well, smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little one's waste-clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups, plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

PRES. VINCENT ARRIVES IN CITY

Addresses Rural School Teachers and County School Boards at Court House in Afternoon

SPEAKS AT OPERA HOUSE 8 P. M.
Subject Tonight Will Be "Playing The Game"—A Brilliant Lecture

George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota, arrived in the city on the afternoon train and after a short luncheon at the Ransford, he was escorted to the court house where he delivered an address to a large body of the school boards of the county and the rural school teachers.

Every seat in the court house was taken. The aisles were filled and people stood in the hallway and on the stairs, for if they could not see the popular speaker of the university, they knew his voice would carry out to the hallways.

In the morning there was a short session of the teachers and the school boards and they were addressed by Rev. G. Phil. Sheridan, pastor of the First Congregational church, who took as his theme: "Social Life in the School."

This evening at eight o'clock President Vincent will address the public at the opera house and his subject will be: "Playing The Game." Those who heard his magnetic, brilliant address on the occasion of his former visit will be glad to hear him again and those who missed hearing him will strive to be present tonight.

There is in Minnesota or the northwest, no better orator than President Vincent. Of an engaging personality, with years of experience on Chautauqua platforms, supplied with a world of information at his fingertips, gifted with a command of language which is really wonderful, to hear Vincent is an intellectual treat and a privilege which should not be missed by any resident of Brainerd.

There should be such an outpouring of Brainerd citizens tonight as will show the hearty esteem in which the president of our state university is held.

FOUND DEAD IN BED TODAY

Chris Zadow, Pioneer Farmer of the County, Expired Suddenly This Morning at Home

THOUGHT TO BE HEART DISEASE
Deputy Coroner Whitney Left This Morning for the Farm Situated in Oak Lawn Township

Chris Zadow, a pioneer of the county, was found dead in bed this morning at his home in Oak Lawn township.

Yesterday Mr. Zadow was apparently in the best of health. He was trading at the stores in Brainerd and drove his team, snapping his whip as usual at his buckskin horse which generally loped a little slower than the white one.

The coroner was notified this morning and Deputy Coroner Dan Whitney left for the farm to examine into the cause of death. It is believed that heart disease was the cause of his sudden demise.

The deceased had been a resident of Crow Wing county for over 30 years. In the early days he was employed as a painter at the shops. Later he purchased and farmed continuously from that time. His land was well cultivated and bore the best of crops and he was known to all the farmers of that community in Oak Lawn township. He leaves a wife and several children. A son, Christ F. Zadow, is married, and resides at 206 Second avenue in Brainerd. Another son is named William and there is also a married daughter who does not reside in Brainerd.

A RANGE AND A CITY DIRECTORY

Compiled by Directory Publisher John H. Ley, of St. Cloud, is Nearing Completion

SOME SAMPLES OF THE NAMES
Estimates of Population are Made for Crosby, Deerwood, Ironton, Cuyuna and Barrows

John H. Ley, the St. Cloud directory publisher, is completing the compilation of a directory which this year will include Brainerd and the Cuyuna range towns of Crosby, Deerwood, Cuyuna, Ironton and Barrows. The work on the range presented many difficulties, but they were successfully overcome by Mr. Ley. The foreign born miners at the various range towns at different times resented giving any information about themselves, but eventually realized for what purpose the directory was being compiled. When then handed in their names, they were, in some cases almost unpronounceable.

As a sample the following are given: Djoko Djeverdanovich, Sujo Djukonovich, Bodi Ryzinich, Wiki Hihbakkanen, Sali Lilivisi, Elxius Obradonovich, Ukura Petajajemi, Nicola Gracobbetti, Jan Ziovanetto, Tilija Vojinovic, Apel Wainija. "I have had quite a little trouble getting these names," said Mr. Ley, "but think of the trouble the printers will have when they set a bunch of these names."

Mr. Ley has made the following estimates of population for the range towns and his figures may be accepted as correct for he is very careful and even more so than a U. S. census compiler.

Crosby's population is 1791, Deerwood has 873, Cuyuna 547, Ironton 517, Barrows 125.

The directories will appear shortly before the holidays and there is no doubt that they will be appreciated by Brainerd and the range towns. Brainerd has used Ley's directories for 12 years and is more than satisfied with the exactness of information, accuracy in compilation, the binding and printing of the volumes furnished in past years. Mr. Ley should be accorded the best patronage.

In addition to furnishing the above directory, Mr. Ley issues directories for St. Cloud, Bemidji, Fergus Falls, Alexandria, Breckenridge, Thief River Falls of this state and Wahpeton, N. D. He also furnishes rural mailing lists and attends to house numbering.

Musical Club

The Musical Club meeting on Saturday afternoon will begin promptly at 3 o'clock and will be in charge of Mrs. E. P. Slipp and Mrs. F. W. Wieland. The program will consist of songs by Miss Ada Bickling, director of music in the St. Cloud normal school, a paper by Miss Carrie Minick, formerly supervisor of drawing in the Brainerd schools, but now instructor of art in the St. Cloud normal school, and a piano duet by Miss Nell Fie Alderman and Mrs. Howard G. Ingersoll.

All members of the club holding unsold tickets for the Skovgaard concert are requested to return them to the secretary of the club on Saturday.

The officers of the club are already in receipt of advance press notices concerning Skovgaard's present tour, which are exceptionally enthusiastic and indicate that the privilege of hearing him and his accompanying artists is a real event for music lovers.

WRITE ABOUT PAUL GILMORE
Or His Play, "The Havoc," and Win Free Seats to Best Attraction of Season, November 15

Of course everybody enjoys a good play, and it is enjoyed still better when your seats don't cost you anything. The Daily Dispatch proposes to give its readers the opportunity of seeing Mr. Paul Gilmore and his splendid company in the great dramatic sensation, "The Havoc," the attraction at the Brainerd opera house Friday, November 15th, and it will cost you but little effort to win one of these prizes.

We will give five prizes for the best five verses mentioning Mr. Paul Gilmore, his play "The Havoc," one or the other, or both.

Here are a couple of samples that may be used as a guide to the contestants:

If you've never seen Paul Gilmore, the actor, Whose good looks in his plays, such a factor, You'll be a great gump,
And all sorts of a chump,
If you miss him this time, that's a fact, Sir.

No. 2.
Paul Gilmore will soon be in town, He's an actor of fame and renown,
And the people all say, That "The Havoc" adds sway, It's the one they like best to have 'round.

However you need not confine the rhyming to Gilmore and "The Havoc" but make the verse applicable to one or the other or both.

The only conditions are that each verse must be accompanied by a coupon clipped from this paper to be found on another page in every issue starting today. All verses must be in by six o'clock Tuesday, Nov. 12th, so that the winners names and verses may be published in the issue of Wednesday, Nov. 13th.

Remember you can write as many as you like, and they will be published from day to day, no names to be published until the prizes are awarded. Cut out the coupon and start today, be the first in the list. Look for the verses every day.

The prizes will be as follows:
1st prize—1 box of six seats.
2nd prize—1 box of four seats.
3rd prize—1 box of three seats.
4th prize—1 box of two seats.
5th prize—two best $1.50 seats.
Clip out the coupon, attach it to your verse, address it and send to the Contest Manager, Daily Dispatch, and on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, look for your name in the list of winners.

Staples Obseves Halloween
Staples, Minn., November 1—

Not in years past has Halloween been so generally observed as in Staples last night. This morning a manure spreader, wagons and other agricultural implements were strung along Main street. Cows, horses and dogs were tied to the machinery. A large pumpkin split by an ax bore the label: "Socialism Dividing Up."

Fisher-Kaufman

Ezra Z. Fisher, of Duluth, and Miss Katherine Kaufman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Kaufman, were married at the home of the bride's parents, 902 Second avenue North-east, on Wednesday evening, the Rev. Elbert E. Saterlee, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, white carnations being lavishly distributed. The bride was attired in a gown of white messaline and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Goldie Kaufman. The groom's best man was J. A. Kaufman, a brother of the bride.

Mr. Fisher is an engineer in the employ of the Northern Pacific railway and is at present employed in a switching crew in the yards. His bride was raised in Brainerd and attended the local schools. After a short wedding trip to the Twin Cities and Duluth, they will make their home in Brainerd.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCreary and Mrs. Gladys Kealy, of Duluth.

Their many friends join in extending their best wishes.

U. A. Smith, Bridgeton, Ind., had kidney trouble for years, and was so crippled with rheumatism he could not dress without help. He started using Foley Kidney Pills, and says: "I began to get better at once, and now all my trouble has left me and I do not feel that I ever had rheumatism. I rest well all night and tho' 59 years old, can now do the work of a man of 35 years. I would like to be the means of others getting benefit from Foley Kidney Pills. Refuse substitutes. NORTHERN MINNESOTA

State Immigration Commissioner Maxfield Preparing Pamphlet to Deal With Each County

State Immigration Commissioner Maxfield is preparing a publication on "Northern Minnesota" for general distribution. This will deal with the northern part of Minnesota by counties, showing the advantages of each and will include a recital of a number of personal experiences of farmers in raising crops.

This will later be followed by pamphlets on "Southern Minnesota" and "Western Minnesota," thus covering the entire state.

The Dispatch urges farmers of the county to send in their crop records and personal experiences in farming so that the same may be sent by this publication to Mr. Maxfield, to be used by him in the section devoted to Crow Wing county.
